

Learning Disabilities Association of Alberta—Red Deer Chapter presents

Speakers Series 2012

Education, Information and Support for Parents/Caregivers, Teachers and Professionals

Wednesday, January 11—How Difficult Can This Be? The F.A.T. City Workshop

Rick Lavoie Video Presentation—This unique program allows viewers to experience the same frustration, anxiety and tension that children with learning disabilities face in their daily lives.

Wednesday, January 18—Study Skills/Test-taking Skills

Carmen Scott, Program Director for LD Red Deer—This evening will provide an opportunity for teachers, parents, students, and other professionals to learn strategies to assist students with studying and test-taking skills.

Wednesday, February 8—It's So Much Work To Be Your Friend

Rick Lavoie Video Presentation—This video provides valuable information to help the child with LDs and ADHD to find social success. As any parent, teacher, coach, or caregiver of a learning disabled child knows, every learning disability has a social component. These children are often socially out of step with their peers, and often they are ridiculed or ostracized for their differences. A successful social life is immeasurably important to a child's happiness, health, and development; this video provides practical, expert advice on helping children with LD's and ADHD achieve social success.

Wednesday, February 22—Brain Power 101: Maximizing Your Child's Ability to Learn, Focus and Excel

Dr. Norman Hoffman of Hoffman Chiropractic & Wellness Centre—This presentation centres on a message of hope, grounded on some amazing success stories from patient files.

Wednesday, March 14—The Motivation Breakthrough

Rick Lavoie Video Presentation—Motivation is the key to learning. but very few parents and teachers have an effective arsenal of techniques at their disposal. With empathy and understanding, backed by decades of experience in the classroom, Rick Lavoie gives parents and teachers the key to unlock any child's enthusiasm and responsiveness. The Motivation Breakthrough will revolutionize the way parents, teachers, and professionals reach out to and motivate all children.
